CHARDONNAY VIN DE PAYS D'OC Cabardès

Winemaker's Notes

In view of the towers of the medieval city of Carcassonne, in the foothills of the Black Mountain, the vineyard covers 60 hectares grouped around the castle. It enjoys a Mediterranean climate of transition under oceanic influence. The transitional climate allows this 100% Chardonnay to fully enjoy its characteristics.

Description

Dazzling pale yellow color reflects that of a buttercup. Dense and rich nose, with aromas of peach, mango, almonds and fresh nuts. Its varietal character asserts in the mouth with a good harmony between scale and moderate freshness. A very pleasant wine in its youth.

Serving Suggestion

Its elegance allows it to associate with fine dishes such as baked fish or grilled seafood. Perfect with onion tart, and goat or sheep cheese. It can serve as an aperitif or paired with charcuterie or smoked salmon.
